Library of Congress—Teaching with Primary Sources

Discover primary sources that fire the imaginations of your students and prompt their creativity. Spark imagination, inquiry, and discussion in these FREE workshops designed to teach educators effective instructional strategies.

Highlights
- Create primary source lesson plans linked to CCSS
- Receive primary source classroom materials
- Earn free in-state tuition at Southeastern for Level II and III certification

Two Summer Institutes Available

Tentative Dates: June 13-16 and June 27-30

For more information, please contact:

Jordan Kea Ahrend, Coordinator
jordan.ahrend@selu.edu
(985) 549-2229

Stefanie Sorbet, Assistant Director
stefanie.sorbet@selu.edu