

Athletics at Southeastern Louisiana University

Notable Highlights 2010 - 2011

- » The women's soccer team finished 15-3-3 overall and won its fifth Southland Conference regular season title. Lacey Bockhaus was named the Southland Player of the Year, while Kyle MacIntosh was selected as the league's Women's Soccer Student-Athlete of the Year.
- » The men's golf team earned its second straight trip to the NCAA Tournament in 2011. Rhys West and Philipp Westermann finished in the top 10 among individuals at the Florida Regional. Cedric Scotto repeated as Southland Student-Athlete of the Year.
- » The women's basketball team made its third straight trip to the Southland Conference Tournament. Rashima Jenkins represented Southeastern on the All-Southland squad.
- » The men's basketball team made its eighth straight trip to the Southland Conference Tournament. Brandon Fortenberry and Trent Hutchin represented Southeastern on the All-Southland squad.
- » The Southeastern baseball team topped 30 wins for the fifth consecutive year, advancing to its fourth straight Southland Conference Tournament. Southeastern shortstop Justin Boudreaux was drafted in the 14th round of the Major League Baseball Draft by the Los Angeles Dodgers and Josh Cryer was named to the Academic All-America team.
- » The Southeastern men's track and field program produced two All-Americans. Kovey Simmons earned All-American honors during the outdoor season in the pole vault. Adonson Shallow earned All-America accolades for the second consecutive season, finishing third in the nation in the weight throw during the indoor season.
- » Softball player Katie Duhe was named to the Academic All-America team for the second straight season, earning first team honors in 2011. She was also awarded the President's Medal for Academic Excellence – the university's highest academic honor – at the fall commencement.
- » The Southeastern Louisiana football team placed eight student-athletes on the 2010 All-Southland Conference Football Teams. Leading the way for the Lions was senior defensive back Tommy Connors, who was named to the team as a first team selection. Southeastern was represented on the second team by junior wide receiver Simmie Yarborough, senior offensive lineman Kevin Hughes, senior defensive end Nathan Clophus and senior linebacker Mark Newbill.
- » Audrey Chelini represented the women's tennis team on the All-Louisiana team for the third consecutive year.
- » Allison Jones was named to the All-Louisiana volleyball team.

Source: Office of Sports Information