2014 - 2015 Highlights

- » The Office of International Initiatives works to increase the global vision of the students of Southeastern Louisiana University by providing students with cross-cultural and international experiences essential to success in a global economy and to strengthen the educational, economic, and social relations between the United States and other countries.

- » A total of eight Study Abroad Programs were offered in 2015 with 94 students and 15 faculty members participating in a total of 38 courses.
- » The Student Government Association continued its history of support for Study Abroad by generously providing $30,000 in scholarships, awarding 40 students $750 each. Additional scholarships were awarded by the Institute for Global and Domestic Development, the Charles Redman Endowment, The Department of Sociology and Criminal Justice, and the College of Business.
- » In addition to the Study Abroad opportunities, several students took advantage of the cooperative agreements between Southeastern Louisiana University and other universities world-wide to spend a semester or an entire year studying at the foreign institution.
