

COL Ralph W. Harris

Colonel Ralph Harris of Independence, LA is a 1983 graduate of Southeastern Louisiana University where he also received a commission as an Army Second Lieutenant in the Signal Corps. Colonel Harris is also a graduate of several top-level Army and Defense Department schools including the Army Command and General Staff College, the Joint Forces Staff College, and the prestigious National Defense University. He holds masters degrees in information systems management and national resource management. Throughout his career, Colonel Harris has served at all levels of command and in a variety of tactical, operational, and strategic signal information systems management assignments both in the Continental United States and in the Middle East. Colonel Harris has numerous awards and decorations that include the Bronze Star Medal, the Defense Meritorious Service Medal, and the Army Meritorious Service Medal. He has also served as the National Chairman, Military Liaison Committee of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Inc.